LOCAL ATHLETICS.

Reserves and Verrina Hi Play a 6-6 Tie.

The Rock-a-Chaw Reserves hooked up with Verrina Hi, of New Orleans, last Sunday on the local grid, and following the precedence of Saturday's battle of the big brothers, ended in a tie of six-all.

The Reserves Huskies started off like a house afire and it looked like lemons for Verrina; Monteleone got the Verrina punt and brought it back 30 yards, then by an end run, an off tackle play and a pass, and they scored three successive first downs, but managed to lose the horseshoe before accomplishing the desired score. Verrina buckled up and held them for the quarter. However, in the second period they worked the ball into the shadows of Verrina's goal posts and Monteleone scurried around end for a marker, but Boudin failed in the extra point.

Verrina came back strong in the second half and by a series of accurate passes from their own 18-yard line marched the oval down to the 1-yard Stanislaus line. To unsuccessful plunges were tried and on the third play Lee went around end for the touchdown, but they failed in the extra point.

From then on it was a battle up and down the field, with neither side in great danger. Frequent fumbles on both sides marred the game. A recovered fumble that Henderson sat on was a big factor in Reserves' scoring.

Shortly Danner was easily the star of the visitors by reason of his successful passing. Casey and Fazio, for Verrina, also played well on the defense. For Stanislaus, Monteleone and Saucier were the stars in the backfield, while Henderson played a good game on the line.

The line-up:

Score by quarters:
Substitutions: Stanislaus, Levering for Martin, Ducote for Menou, Blouin for Levering, Reed for McCauley, Levering for Blouin, McCauley for Henderson, Menou for Scadifi, Perry for Saucier, Martin for Saucier, Verrina, Bandy for Abadie, Lee for Brown, Young for Caruso, Flynn for Kelley.

Penalties: Stanislaus, 70 yards; Verrina, 25 yards.
Officials: Logan (Wabash), referee; Gaddy (Miss. A. & M.), umpire; Cue (Miss. A. & M.), head linesman.

Sunday, November 22nd, the Rock-a-Chaw play Jefferson College at Convent, La. It will be a big day on account of the Home-Coming celebration of the famous old school. Jefferson has a formidable eleven this year and the game is sure to be a rip-snorter.

So Weak Couldn't Stand

"My wife's health broke down and for years she was just a physical wreck," says Mr. Thomas Glyn, of Gibson, La. "We did everything we knew, yet she seemed to get worse and worse. She was so weak till she couldn't stand, and had to be carried like a baby. It looked like nothing would save her that had been done."

CARDUI

For Female Troubles

"I began looking around. I knew that Cardui was for women. I decided to try it for her as all else had failed. She couldn't eat, she couldn't sleep, and I was desperate. After taking the first dose of Cardui, we were surprised to note that she wanted something to eat, and with each bit of nourishment, and each day's doses of Cardui, she grew stronger and got up out of bed. She is now able to cook and stronger than in a long time."

Cardui has been in successful use for nearly 50 years in the treatment of many common female troubles.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF LAND

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of Hancock County, Mississippi, entered on the 30th day of October, A. D. 1925, in cause No. 2853, the undersigned docket of said court, wherein Janita Benigno, doing by next friend, is complainant, and Marie Benigno, et al, defendants, the undersigned will on MONDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1925, the same being the first Monday in said month, within legal hours, sell at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash in the front door of the court house at this county, the following described and situated in Hancock County, State of Mississippi, to wit:

THE PAPER FROM THE OLD HOME TOWN.

At evening when the work of day is over,
And for a bit of reading I sit down,
The reading I do first and which I like the most
Is the paper from my old home town.

I know what's going on back there at home,
In Arcady, where I first trod the ground.
For news of it I thirst, and always get it first
In the paper from my old home town.

I like to think of those I used to know,
The boys and girls with whom I once went round;
I'm posted on their doings, their travels and their wooings
By the paper from my old home town.

At times when I go back and meet old friends,
Who tell me news of Smith or Jones or Brown,
I tell them that I know it, because I read about it
In the paper from my old home town.

If you have moved away from former scenes
In search of greater riches or renown,
To keep old memories bright and gain a new delight,
Read the paper from your old home town.

—Joseph W. Gannon.

THE WAY OF YOUTH.

The way of youth is "away". Money is one means to go, and sex attraction is the other. The laws of self-preservation and of procreation are the two strongest, ever-present and prevailing forces. Reduced to a rule of action, or rather from the genesis, they are laws of being and conduct. Municipal laws endeavor to reduce the call on the law of self-preservation to ordinary matters which this primal sense universally integrates—as almost all thoughts and actions, save when purely vicarious—and to confine procreation to the family, which it approves as the safest basis for organized society.

The educational research department of the Federal Council of Churches has made an extensive survey of the effects of prohibition, and its serial reports on it have attracted general attention for their moderate, impartial and reasonably profound observations and deductions.

Without alleging any belief, as to a general moral breakdown of youth, and considering only what was actually the tendency of the young of today to investigate, it is said that the depart from conventional rules of behavior cannot be laid entirely at the door of prohibition, but "the fact that prohibition has made no more decisive effect in heightening their moral tone, gives food for earnest thought."

Protagonists and opponents of prohibition have opposite views as to its effect on increase of crime and disrespect of law. It must be admitted that many people have been drawn into the violation of law, generally, because of money to be made in methodical violation of this law. There is considerable more drinking among youth, and especially girls, than before the prohibition law.

But the moral breakdown may be attributed to the sex attraction, which had become generally so abused and become so common, as to need to seek for a cause far from mere drinking.

These may be considered by thoughtful persons, who have some knowledge of the fundamental tendencies of human nature, to draw what conclusions they may. Co-education; lack of restraint; promiscuous bathing—frequently on dry land; the "common" touch; informal communication of the sexes; growing disregard for any kind of restraint, advice or public opinion (where there is any); attacking churches and their teachings; suggestive stories; release of unexpected editions of salacious writings; utter abandon of some pictures in the movies, in the magazines, advertisements and "art." The freedom of action, of discussion and the "knowledge that will make you free"—and which is not necessary to freedom; and the style of "pressure" dances, when few clothes are worn; the "don't care" spirit; the all-time "good time" obsession; the parked automobile; the decline of the gentleman; too much "democracy"; too much money for self-indulgence—and indulging it; hatred of the simple life, or any relation of it; being glib.

There are others. Drinking and smoking, per se, are not all of it—the desire to do so is more dangerous. The paint and powder are mere vanities; few clothes and rolled stockings might not be.

It is not far off of the mark to say, that a drink or a smoke, even to occasional excess, is an atomic danger compared to the loss of modesty and the cheapening of woman. And the conceiver is ever at work!—Coast Herald.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

Debating Club.

The Literary Debating Club had a very interesting debate, yesterday. The topic was: Resolved, that the Picture Show is a benefit to a town. Those on the negative were: Mary Bourgeois and Vivian Blaize; on the affirmative, Bessie Batson and Victoria Gabriel. There were many good arguments on both sides. Our next debate will be held before the High School.

Captain Elected for the Gold J's.
The Gold J's elected their captain Thursday, the 12th, and Bessie Batson was unanimously chosen to lead the Jays to victory. We congratulate them on their choice and expect a season of interesting games.

Game at Logtown.
Friday, the 13th, the first and second teams journeyed to Logtown with all hopes to bring home victory. After much hard playing from both teams the two games ended with close scores, both in favor of Logtown. That of the first team was 18-14 and of the second 6-8. More luck next time, Gold J's.

Will Go To New Orleans.

On Saturday, the 28th, both teams go to New Orleans, where they will meet the Chattaway Dashaways from St. Mary of the Pines, Chattaway. This school has an excellent team and we expect an exciting game, and, of course—we win. On the following Sunday they will oppose the New Orleans A. team and both sides seem determined to win. Who will it be, Gold J's?

Big Improvement.

All S. J. A. is rejoicing over the new screens which have been placed on the first floor windows. With what relief they can bid farewell to paper-stockings cans of smoke and like devices to ward off the attacks of those horrid pests—mosquitoes. The Demonstration Girls can be proud of such a great work. We extend thanks to the club and to all the good people of Bay St. Louis who helped in any way to get this "new improvement" for S. J. A.

Entertainment.

At the request of Miss O'Dom, county demonstration agent, the Playwhites will unite with the Home Demonstration Club in giving a humorous program, the proceeds of which will go to swell the screening fund. The program is profound secret, but by watching the conferences of the performers and straining our ears to catch sounds of the rehearsal, we infer that it is to be a side-splitting comedy. We expect a large crowd next Wednesday at the College, 7:30.

Bay High-S. J. A.

An exciting basketball game was that which was fought between the Bay High and the Gold J's Thursday afternoon in the S. S. C. auditorium. The final score was 16-11 in favor of S. J. A. Virginia Chapman starred for Bay High, and Anna Mae Blaize and Dixie Dodge for the Gold J's.

What Would S. J. A. Do Without—

Mary B. and her doll?
Theresa and her Doll Sal?
Bessie and her dog?
Eryn and her ring?
Evelyn and her breaks?
Vivian and her candy?
Bee and her stuttering?
Mary Adams and her "whats"?
Alberta and her Charleston?
Margaret and her "ho-doings"?
Ina and Yvonne's generosity?
Mell and her car notes?
Verna and her notes?
Dutch and her flirt?
Caroline and her debut?

Notice.

Vivian and Evelyn are so friendly lately (O'Henry's)
Mary B. has been singing "Take me back to your heart."
Eryn didn't want to get her shoes wet Saturday after the show.
Evelyn still giggles.
Bee has resolved not to ask questions.

The BULL'S EYE

Editor and Publisher

Another "Bull" Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld Folies and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

I see where some of the Foreign Nations say they are going to FUND their debt to America, and all the Papers are all excited about it. But the BULL'S EYE is a Paper that never misleads our readers (either one of them). FUNDING a debt means about the same thing as having a fellow that has owed you for years, come to you and say "I am going to make arrangements to take up that loan I owe you just as soon as I can collect it from some fellows who owe me." So don't by any means get FUNDING mixed up with PAYING. The two have nothing in common. These Nations are just stalling until another War comes along and the first thing you know our debt will be four Wars behind. We have enough saved up to fight again, but they are using it now to enforce Prohibition.

Oh, yes, "BULL" DURHAM. I like to forget to mention that. Well, that is what the Foreign Nations are paying us in. "BULL" DURHAM without the DURHAM.

There is going to be another piece in this paper soon. Look for it.

City Echoes.

Mrs. C. B. Fisher has returned from a visit to New Orleans, to which point she accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Hays, on her return home.

Mrs. John Jones is spending the week visiting friends and relatives in New Orleans and is the house guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones.

Mrs. W. D. Hays and two sons, after a most delightful visit of three weeks to Mrs. Hays' parents, Captain and Mrs. C. B. Fisher, returned a few days since to their home at Jackson, Miss.

Jitney Jungle Store has a new advertisement in this week's Echo of interest to the Thanksgiving season. Good things to eat, including live and dressed turkeys. Read the ads. and save money.

Misses Grace and Elizabeth Fisher, with their guest, Mrs. Alfred LeBlanc, spent a few days visiting at the home of Captain and Mrs. C. B. Fisher and returned to New Orleans Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Boh and family, residing on the north beach front, have taken a lease on the Battistella villa, adjoining "Kenwood," and with their family will shortly move therein.

Mrs. Emile J. Toca and baby left last night for Miami, Fla., where they will join Mr. Toca, who is temporarily located there with building operations in charge. They will be met by him at Jacksonville.

Mayor Blaise informs The Echo the city has brought in two fine wells, one on St. Charles street, about 30 pounds pressure, 350 gallons, more or less; Esterbrook street well, 250 per minute. It is expected to turn all wells into the mains shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leonard and Mrs. Albert T. Leonard came out from New Orleans Wednesday and were among the out-of-town guests for the Boh-Booth wedding. They were the house guests of their sister, Mrs. C. A. Breath.

Miss Ione von Dofzkowsky left Sunday night for St. Augustine, Fla., where she has joined her sister, Miss Mildred. Both young ladies have positions with the East Florida Railway Company and are delighted with their new home in the Palm City on St. Anastasia Bay.

Mrs. Charles Zerr, of New Orleans, is spending the week visiting her aunt, Mrs. Gaspard, and sister, Miss Ames, at the family home on Front street, and also the many friends of her former home town. Mrs. Zerr, a recent bride, is pleasantly remembered as Miss Lillian Ames.

A force of men are at work opening the new city street, continuation of Hancock on through from Ballintine to St. Charles, and in a comparative short time the thoroughfare will be open to the public. This is one of the outstanding improvements of the municipality and is noted with more than ordinary interest.

J. N. Wisner is one of the firm believers not only in advertising but in the efficacy of The Sea Coast Echo as an effective medium. He says a two-liner ad. in these columns sold the entire output of his Porto Rican yams from his place, every sale he made is attributed to the direct pulling power of The Echo. Moral: Do likewise.

Pere LeDuc Council, Knights of Columbus, gave another successful ball Saturday evening at their own hall, in Main street. The attendance was large and both from a social and financial standpoint the affair was noteworthy. The proceeds are being expended to the building debt fund. This was one of the series of balls and entertainments given for the purpose.

A quiet but pretty wedding ceremony was celebrated Sunday morning, 11 o'clock, at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, when Miss Mercedes LeBlanc and Miss John S. LeBlanc were united in marriage. The bride and groom are both of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Webb, of Denver, Colorado, are spending a while visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Wisner, at their home, guests at their home, "On-the-Beach," Mr. Webb is president of the International Railroad Supply Company, of his city. This is their second visit to the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Wednesday the party motored over to Biloxi.

Dr. and Mrs. Alvah P. Smith have returned from Dallas, Texas, where they attended the session of the Southern Medical Association, and report both a most enjoyable and profitable time. Dr. Smith says the convention was one of unusual interest. The discussions, lectures and modern medicine and surgery were all subjects well worthy of such an important gathering.

The Hogan Construction Company is making rapid progress with the work of paving the city streets, actually ahead of schedule time. Second from Ulman to Union street, and all of the latter street received its coating of concrete, and Court street is at present receiving like treatment. It is planned to begin similar work at Front street, beginning from the point of location of the old Peerless oyster packing plant Monday morning.

Announcements received in Bay St. Louis tell of the marriage of Miss Cleo Benedict, formerly of this city and later of Asheville, N. C., to Mr. G. Mentor Nye, the happy event occurring at Tampa, Fla., October 28. Mr. and Mrs. Nye are now at home since the 15th, at 2517 Maryland avenue, Bay Shore, Tampa, Fla. The bride has many friends here who will learn with interest of this announcement and anticipate for the couple a bright and prosperous future.

Playing a two-week engagement in New Orleans, at the Liberty Theatre, the film "Phantom of the Opera," comes to Bay St. Louis at the A. & G. Theatre Thanksgiving matinee and night, and also on Friday night following, an event of extraordinary interest in screen production. The enterprise of the management of the A. & G. Theatre is commendable and in return a splendid patronage should prove an encouragement for future big pictures while yet new and in the "first run" list.

It is interesting to note material delivered daily on the site in Main street where the new 3-story brick Masonic Hall building will stand. Many thousands of brick, quantities of sand and cement are ready for the men, who plan to begin actual construction next week. For the present concrete foundations are in the building. Bay St. Louis will have every right to feel proud of this handsome and material acquisition to its growth and progress. The size and beauty of the building and the prominence of its location in the business section make the improvement at all the more.

Manager Lloyd Cottrell, manager of the Gulfport Strand Theatre, says his ad. in last week's Echo attracted many people to the production at the Strand Theatre Saturday night, when the "World of Pelasus" was presented. The ferry carried over a full complement of cars, and the trip made to and fro under the most favorable auspices. It is planned to give Bay St. Louis theatregoers this opportunity every time there is something of note at the Gulfport Strand, Captain Drackett of the Bay St. Louis ferry co-operating.

Headquarters for the Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce are now completely equipped and furnished, located in part of the Munirighi building, west of the courthouse square, prominently and centrally located. The first regular meeting of the organization was held at the association's own quarters last night. All furniture was purchased from the Bay Mercantile Company, office supplies and printing from The Sea Coast Echo and every article possible purchased at home. The spirit is bound to win.

AGONIZING PAIN QUICKLY BANISHED

Two applications of home
remedy gave complete relief

Don't suffer—don't wait for pain to just wear off. Give it relief at once with a very simple home treatment. "I could not sleep or do my work," writes a Washington, D. C., woman, "but now I can walk and do my work and sleep at night. I used Sloan's Liniment only twice and it relieved me of my pain. It is just wonderful. I will never be without it."

This is only one letter but it is typical of thousands that the makers of Sloan's have received, testifying to the amazing relief that Sloan's gives to every kind of muscular pain.

No need to rub, it's the medicine itself that does the work. Just pat it on. Instantly it sends the fresh, healing blood tingling through the sick tissues—and the pain simply has to go. So clear and easy to use. Get a bottle today. All drug stores.

WEEKLY ECHOES FROM ST. STANISLAUS

Rings and Pins at Last.

Class '26 have received their class rings and pins at last and are very much satisfied with them. Although they were not received on Dad's Day, the day on which they were expected, the class as a whole is very much pleased with them, so much so that it will be hard to part with them.

We wonder how many Grads will return with their pins after the Xmas holidays. Of course it is understood that they are to keep their rings. As for the pins, that is different.

Second Team Play Vermina 6-6 Tie. The second team and Vermina Hi played a 6-6 tie here Sunday. The visitors, who were particularly successful in their aerial game, completely baffled the locals in this kind of play.

The locals made most of their gains by line bucks. End runs were also used on which good gains were made.

The visitors came back strong in the third quarter and by brilliant passing advanced the ball from their own 18-yard line to the Stanislaus' 1-yard line. Two unsuccessful plunges were tried, but on the third Lee skirted and for the tying count. Frequent fumbles marred the playing of both teams during the last quarter.

For the visitors "Shorty" Danner played a brilliant game. Casey and Pazzo also played well. For Stanislaus, Monteleone and Saucier were the stars, while Thierry and Guidry played brilliant ball on the line.

First Team Game.

The hardest fought game ever played on our campus took place Saturday afternoon when the Rock-a-Chaws battled the Poplarville Aggies to a scoreless tie. The equal number of first downs made by each team during the game indicates well the closeness of the contest.

The work of Bonura and Blaize, assisted by the accurate passing of the ball by Montzi at center, was a big help to beat. Montzi held down his part of the line, well and very few gains were made through him.

Rock-a-Chaws Have Two More Games To Play.

The Stanislaus football schedule is almost finished, but two games remain to be played within the next eight days. Jefferson Sunday and Gulfcoast Thanksgiving Day.

The varsity leaves Saturday evening for the Jefferson fray. On the local grounds the Reserves will take on the fast Holy Cross team. They bring with them a fast backfield and a line that has given trouble to all opponents. The Reserves are hoping for a victory, but are not too optimistic about the outcome.

Next Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, the whole student body and their friends will leave from Bay St. Louis on a special train for the G. C. M. A. game. The train will leave at 1:00, and returning leaving Anniston avenue at 5:30. The round trip fare will be $1.00. Tickets can now be had at Frank Martin's, the Beach Drug Store or from Bro. Edmund. Make reservations early. Even if you intend going by car, obtain your tickets for the game at the College. You will be helping the athletic fund along.

Game is to start at 2:30 at Jefferson. Sunday also the G. C. M. A. game is scheduled for the same hour on Thursday. Don't forget Thanksgiving Day, the time 1:00. Logan will referee; Colson umpire, and Laird head linesman.

Basketball.

As the end of the football season is drawing near basketball comes in to replace it.

Last Monday Mr. Forster summoned all students of the senior division to the big study hall and took down the names of all those who wished to try out for the team. Eighty-four men responded to his call, and prospects for the varsity

Jokes.

Toups—This school house looks like the high school in Raceland.

Burns—Yes, but this is a hospital, you dumbbell.

Bro.—Take this down in short hand or any hand.

Warner—How about writing it left-handed, Bro.?

Billy—I wrote on the wrong topic.

Bro.—You are just like the mule.

Billy—How's that, Bro.?

Bro.—Just like the mule that goes into the stall and it does not matter which end goes first.

Toups—What glass is that shining?

Brignac—It's either my ring or my gold tooth.

Bro.—What classic are you reading this month?

Ware—Terzan of the Apes.

Bro.—You are taking too much time.

Strawberry—I am trying to think.

Sam—You play leapfrog, don't you, Blenk?

Blenk—How's that?

Sam—Every time your girl says frog you jump.

Blenk—I am going to the city on November 11th.

Sam—What is November 11th?

Blenk—Labor Day, you fool.

College Boys, Take Notice.

Did it ever occur to you that your life is full of crosses and temptations?

You come into the world without your consent and go out of it against your will, and the trip between is exceedingly rocky. The rule of contraries is one of the features of the trip.

When you are little, the big girls kiss you; when you are big, the little girls kiss you. If you are poor, you are a bad manager; if you are rich, you are dishonest; if you need credit you can't get it; if you are prosperous, everyone wants to do you a favor.

If you are actively religious, you are a hypocrite, if you take no interest in religion you are a hardened sinner, if you give alms, you are a self-righteous hypocrite, if you care for no one, you are cold blooded. If you die young, there was a great future for you; if you live to an old age, you missed your calling. If you save money you're a grouch; if you spend it, you're a loafer; if you get it, you're a grafter; if you can't get it, you're a dum; So what the heck's the use?

Thanksgiving is a good time to look back and take stock of what you have to be thankful for. If you have been prudent and deposited some of your earnings regularly, you know you have something substantial in our bank to be thankful for. If you have not deposited money regularly, be thankful you still have your health and a job, and start in now to make regular deposits. Next year you will be more thankful. Come in. We will welcome you.
